

Samhain/ Dia De Los Muertos Celebration

Hosted by UUCA Full Circle

At the midpoint between the fall equinox and the winter solstice, we pause to remember and honor the dead.

We honor ancestors.

We honor those we have loved.

We honor, too those we never met.

We honor all humans,

We honor all beings.

We honor the perpetual cycle of life.

Death / life / night / day / winter / summer,

All are part of the sacred cycle.

Tonight we remember the wholeness of our selves and our earth community.

We remember the sacredness of our selves and our earth community.

What is remembered, lives.

Saturday, November 2, 2013

at Annapolis Unitarian Universalist Church in the main sanctuary
333 Dubois Road, Annapolis MD 21401 410-266-8044

6:00 PM – Ancestor altar building Participants are invited to construct a personal altar to honor those who have passed.

7:00 PM—Ritual and Labyrinth walking We will honor the turning of the season and participants may walk the labyrinth in meditation and contemplation.

8:30 PM—Dumb Supper Feasting Participants may join in feasting with an empty place set to remember those who have passed. A donation of a can of vegetable soup for feasting is appreciated.

All are welcome.

Please bring a can of vegetable soup to contribute to the Dumb Supper.

Questions? Contact MikaelasEmail@gmail.com